Great New Magazine for Kids

How does a parent get their child more interested in History and Social Studies? One way might be Cobblestone Magazine. This magazine which targets ages 9 to 14 will "bring history to life" It is highly endorsed by renowned Historian and film maker Ken Burns. Each 52 page issue is full of fascinating true stories, great photographs about real events. The publishers are the same ones who publish the high quality literary magazine for kids called Cricket. Cobblestone would make a wonderful holiday gift.
