

To All History Buffs or just those of us interested in our own local history.

Paul M. Van Dort historian and worlds fair collector, has worked with researcher Lori Walters to put together an awesome "Virtual Tour" of the 1939 World's Fair, held in Queens. This site includes pictures and maps of each and every building and exhibit from the fair plus dozens of links to other collections.

There are only two buildings left from the 1939 World's Fair, one is the New York Museum building, which is now the Queens Museum.
